Additional Information: Looking for an affordable home with great potential? This mobile home offers an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, handy homeowners, or investors looking to add value. Major updates have already been completed, including a new fridge, newer furnace, newer washer and dryer, a new electrical panel and wiring, and it's even wired for a future hot tub. While the home could use a little TLC, it's the perfect chance to put in some work, build equity, and make it your own. With the big-ticket updates already taken care of, all that's left is your vision and a little elbow grease to transform this home into something special.
